

Weber Reads 2023
Ways of Living: Indigenous Voices
Lessons and Resource Guide

National Museum of the Native American: <https://americanindian.si.edu/nk360>

*The main page for the National Museum of the Native American's "Native Knowledge 360" resources.

Lesson Search: <https://americanindian.si.edu/nk360/lessons-resources/search-resources>

*Explore featured instructional and informational resources on Native culture and experiences.

National Indian Education Association:

<https://www.niea.org/new-blog-2/student-centeredlearningactivites>

*NIEA has partnered with IllumiNative to create and disseminate digital education tools, lesson plans, and resources. Resources are available for free and downloadable.

National Education Association:

<https://www.nea.org/professional-excellence/student-engagement/tools-tips/native-american-and-alaska-native-heritage-month>

*Explore Native American culture with the following lessons, activities, and resources.

EDSITEment (National Endowment for the Humanities):

<https://edsitement.neh.gov/lesson-plans?keywords=native+americans>

*A collection of lessons and education resource curated by the National Endowment of Humanities.

International Society for Technology in Education:

<https://www.iste.org/explore/classroom/15-resources-teaching-native-american-history-and-culture>

*Historically accurate and culturally respectful resources for including Native American people, history, art, and culture into lesson plans.

National Council of Teachers of English:

<https://www.readwritethink.org/search?s=native+american>

*NCTE's ReadWriteThink provides high quality practices in reading and language arts instruction aligned to IRA/NCTE Standards for the English Language Arts.

PBS Learning Media:

<https://utah.pbslearningmedia.org/collection/native-america/>

*This collection from the Public Broadcasting Company includes stand-alone clips and classroom activities that bring the value of sacred origin stories and the complexity of early Native city planning to life, culminating on hands-on activities designed to help students better understand both.

Utah Indian Curriculum Project:

<https://utahindians.org/Curriculum/index.php>

*In partnership with the Utah Division of Indian Affairs, the American West Center has developed and produced these teaching guides and lesson plans for teaching the history, culture, and current issues of Utah's American Indian tribes in Utah history classes and high school social studies classes.

Facing History & Ourselves:

<https://facingtoday.facinghistory.org/20-teacher-resources-on-native-american-history-and-culture>

*Resources that middle/junior and high school teachers can use when developing lesson plans related to the roles of Native American peoples in American history and contemporary life.

Brigham Young University ARTS Partnership:

<https://education.byu.edu/arts/lessons>

*Multidisciplinary lessons that incorporate Native stories and history with the arts into core curriculum subjects.

Utah Education Network:

<https://www.uen.org/americanindian/educator.shtml>

*Dynamic resources about the unique cultures, diverse history, contributions and resilience of the Native Americans in Utah and throughout North America.